Year 2 - Sydney Living Museums – Susannah Place Excursion Tuesday 13th August 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

The Susannah Place Living Museum is located in the heart of The Rocks. Students will discover what life was like for ordinary working-class children living in the suburbs or on the fringes of Australian cities in the early 1900s. Through Role-play, they will step into the shoes of the 'Youngein' children, Jim and Dolly, from Susannah Place, Sydney and find out how they lived.

The museum supports our new history syllabus "The Past in the Present" and is a wonderful hands-on learning experience.
